THE COMMUNITY GATHERS...

From many places we gather here. This is a high point of our week. We see our friends. We make new friends. And we spend time with the loving Christ who meets us where we are, as we are. In this Sanctuary we worship, and through worship the courage within us is kindled to inspire courageous living beyond this place.

Welcome and Announcements

The Rev. Rushan Sinnaduray

* Sharing Aloha

Rev. Sinnaduray

Call to Worship (responsively)

Stephen Haley

One: We have come in with wandering and lonely hearts.

Many: God draws us together in community.

One: We have come in with confusion about sharing our gifts.

Many: God offers us clarity and hope.

One: We have come in for a good word.

Many: Jesus offers us this calling, "Where our treasure is, there our hearts will be."

* Opening Hymn

When Morning Gilds the Skies

No. 35, vs. 1-4

* Prayer of Invocation (in unison)

Stephen Haley

Holy God, there is always more for our hearts to learn as we strive to be faithful both in privacy and in community. You know our hearts and what they need today. You know our church and what we need in resources. Inspire us with your Spirit, so that we find the harmony of gratitude and giving, working together so that all may be blessed. Amen.

Hymn for Reflection These Hills (today, we sing verse 1 twice)

Am Em F C

♩ = 108

1. These hills where the hawk flies lone-ly, beach-es where the long surf rolls,
5 mount-ains where the snows meet heav-en, these are our care. Pas-tures where the 10 sheep graze calm-ly, or-chards where the ap-ples grow, gar-dens where the 14 ros-es clus-ter, these are our prayer.

TO RESPOND IN FAITH...

Prayers for Ourselves and Others Rev. Sinnaduray

The Lord's Prayer (in unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

NEW FROM THE CUC ARCHIVES...

Reverend Kenneth Orson
Rewick
CUC 1970 - 1974

Speaking with anyone who has known Ken, you will hear enthusiastic praises. The Reverend Kenneth Orson Rewick, Central Union's 20th Senior Minister (1970-1974) is the latest addition to cuchistory.org—Central Union's history website and digital archive!

He had a love for working with youth. Before becoming our Senior Minister, he was chaplain of Punahou School for 15 years (1950-1965), then the headmaster at Mid-Pac Institute for five years. Yearbook photographs, during Dr. Rewick's presidency, show him having fun with the students in an afternoon game of touch football.

In 1970 Central Union again chose wisely in naming its next senior minister, the Reverend Kenneth Orson Rewick. Dr. Rewick and his wife Doris, a Central Union Preschool teacher and later director of the school, took their place naturally at Central Union, encouraging in the church a keen sense of congregational participation drawing those who simply "came" to church to become involved. Membership grew past the 3,000 mark.

Read Ken's fun story and sermon about catching a 225-pound Marlin in only a 13-foot boat. Once caught, with help from a larger boat alongside, the fish was hoisted onto their small boat leaving no room for Ken and his buddy. To return to Pokai harbor, Wai'anae, West O'ahu, they had to sit on TOP of the Marlin, and paddle to harbor using the boat oars. As he tells the story in his sermon "Confessions of a Fisherman" you can feel his presence speaking to you, making you want to get up and say... "Here am I Lord, use me!"
