The boys are brothers and all go to 'Iolani School. Also, the piano accompanist is their mother, Jennifer Chen, who is a mathematics teacher at 'Iolani.

THE COMMUNITY GATHERS...

From many places we gather here. This is a high point of our week. We see our friends. We make new friends. And we spend time with the loving Christ who meets us where we are, as we are. In this Sanctuary we worship, and through worship the courage within us is kindled to inspire courageous living beyond this place.

Call to Worship (responsively)

Robinson Fredrick

One: The world tells us our worth is found in our work, our hustle, and our constant productivity.

Many: But Christ calls us to a different rhythm—a rhythm of rest and renewal.

One: Come to me, says Jesus, all you who are weary and carrying heavy burdens.

Many: We bring our exhaustion, our anxieties, and our endless to-do lists.

One: Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for my burden is light.

Many: We come to resist the pressure to do it all, and to receive the grace of holy rest.

One: Let us worship the God of the journey and the Lord of the feast!

Many: Let us worship God together! Let us worship the God who sets us free!

 Prayer of Invocation (in unison)

Robinson Fredrick

God of Holy Sabbath, we enter this space carrying the heavy weights of a culture that demands constant motion and absolute certainty. We confess that we often tie our identity to our output, forgetting that we are already loved just as we are. Quiet our minds and slow our racing thoughts today. Help us to accept Jesus' radical invitation to sit down, breathe deeply, and find rest for our souls. Teach us the holy art of resistance through resting. May your Holy Spirit untangle us from the trap of perfectionism and fill us with the liberating peace that only you can give. We pray this in the name of Jesus Christ, our rest and our refuge. Amen.

Hymn of Reflection

We Are Many, We Are One

We are many, we are one, and the work of Christ is done
when we learn to live in true community,
as the stars that fill the night,
as a flock of birds in flight,
as the cluster of the grapes upon the vine;
as the branches of a tree,
as the waves upon the sea,
as the cluster of the grapes upon the vine.

All division is made whole when we honor every soul,
find the life of God in every you and me,
as the fingers of a hand,
as the grains that form the sand,
as the cluster of the grapes upon the vine;
as the threads upon the loom,
as a field of flowers in bloom,
as the cluster of the grapes upon the vine.

We will join creation's song, make a world where all belong, build as one in peace and loving harmony,
as the voices of a choir,
as the flames within a fire,
as the cluster of the grapes upon the vine;
as the snowflakes in the snow,
as the colors of a bow,
as the cluster of the grapes upon the vine.

TO RESPOND IN FAITH...

Prayers for Ourselves and Others

Rev. Sinnaduray

The Lord's Prayer (in unison)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

Holy Communion

We practice open communion here at Central Union Church, which means that all are welcome to gather at Christ's table and to share in this meal – a symbol of our connectedness to each other, to all of creation and to God. We invite you to come forward using the side aisles to receive Holy Communion. Once you have received communion, you may return to your seat via the center aisle. In addition to regular bread, there will also be a gluten-free option available at the station on the Ewa side – please indicate to those serving if you require gluten-free bread.

Prayer of Thanksgiving (in unison)

We give thanks that we have gathered together in this sacred place, and been refreshed at this table. We rejoice in the giftedness of each person here. We are grateful for who we are for each other. May we go forth into the world in courage and peace to share the unfailing love that we have experienced in this meal. Amen.

AND GO FORTH IN LOVE.

God's love cannot be contained within the walls of this Sanctuary. Take the love of Christ from this place into your homes, neighborhoods, and communities.

* Hymn Love Divine, All Loves Excelling No. 228

* Closing Prayer (in unison) Rev. Sinnaduray Glory to God, whose power, working in us, can do infinitely more than we can ask or imagine. Glory to God from generation to generation, in the Church and in Christ Jesus, for ever and ever. Amen.

(Adapted from Ephesians 3:20-21)

* Benediction Rev. Sinnaduray

* Congregational Response

FROM THE CUC ARCHIVES...

The Reverend Horace H. Leavitt, Central Union's 17th Senior Minister, is the latest addition to the Central Union history website, cuchistory.org. Located under “Central Union Ministers” on the site. Senior Minister Rev. Horice Leavitt (1931-1943) smoothly lead Central Union through the most challenging times, starting with the Great Depression, a severe global economic downturn from 1929 to 1939. The period was characterized by high rates of unemployment and poverty. People didn’t have food or work. Speak to our grandparents for heart wrenching stories. During this time his accomplishments included the formation of the Women’s League (1934), the construction of the first Women’s Building (1935), and the original Parish Hall (1937). After the attack on Pearl Harbor, Rev. Leavitt and Central Union Church members stepped up by providing temporary homes for more than a hundred people left homeless. Our Great Lawn became a victory garden for all. During the nighttime blackouts, following the attack, Central Union provided moonlight evening organ concerts with the programs printed in luminous ink. For more info, contact CUC Historian, Karl Hedberg: historian@centralunionchurch.org.
